JOHNSON-PAYNE WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Erma May Johnson and Mr. Lloyd C. Payne took place at 8:15 o'clock Wednesday evening, June 21, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson, 2436 Flora avenue. The Rev. Wm. H. Thomas officiated. The bride wore a gown of white silk net brocaded with velvet roses and silver beads draped over cream satin. Her veil was of tulle, fastened with a wreath of lilies of the valley and her bouquet was of pink roses and lilies of the valley in shower effect. Her only ornament was a lavalier set with three diamonds, the gift of the groom. The party marched down an aisle made by the ribbon bearers, Constance Evans and Viola Green, by the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. Sallie Jackson.

The groom was attended by Mr. Frank Myers. Following them came the flower girl, Elizabeth Brown, strewing roses from a large basket, then little Alma Pulliam followed with a calla lily which held the ring. The bride's maids were beautifully gowned in white dresses with pink silk boleros and touches of rose buds. They carried bouquets of pink roses. Miss Grace Middleton acted as maid of honor. Misses Emma Johnson and Emma Rector were bridesmaids. Many were present and expressed their congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Payne will be at home after July 1 at 2735 Vine street. The bride was given away by her father. The following presents were received: Silver mustard cup—Curtis Payne, Glasgow, Mo.

In fallen arches

there is one little bone in the foot that has to bear the brunt of all the trouble.

Doctors call this the scaphoid bone. It is the key-stone of the foot's arch. When it is displaced—down tumbles the arch and foot-misery follows.

The Crossett "Doctor" Shoe supports every bone in the foot.

The outside of the heel is extended so as to form a sturdy foundation.

The soft, pliable leather of the "upper" is so carefully shaped that it fits as snugly as a bandage.

Try on a pair of Crossett "Doctor" Shoes. You'll at once notice that your arches are not only held in the correct position, but that they are comfortably supported.

As in every Crossett Shoe—your comfort is first in the
